We would further state that its eirculation in the counties which trade to this place is THREE TIMES as large as that of any other paper published in North Carolina, and that its list is daily increasing. We say, therefore, without the fear of contradiction, that it is the best vehicle for advertising which the peonic of Wilmington can select. One other observation We think, that although a large majority of the readers of the "Journal" are Democrats, still they occasionally do a little trading, as well as the readers of the whig pahers. #### Spring and Summer Medicine.

Dr. Townsend's Sarsaparilla. THE MOST EXTRAORDINARY MEDICINE IN over all other remedies is, while it eradicates disease it invigorates the body.

IT HAS PERFORMED MORE THAN 15,000 CURES THIS YEAR 1,000 cures of Rheumatism 1,000 cures of Dyspepsia; 2.500 cures of general debility, and want of nervous energy;

3,000 Female complaints and over;
7,000 cures of diseases of the blood, viz:
Ulcers, Scrofula, Erysipelas, Salt Rheum, Pimples on the face, &c. &c., together with numerous cases of consumption, Liver Complaint, Spinal Affections, &c. This, we are aware, must appear incredible, but we have letters from physicians and our Agents from all parts of the United States, informing us of extraordina negro man ry cures. R. Van Buskirk, Esq., one of the most respectable druggists in Newark, New Jersey, informs us that he can refer to more than one hundred and fifty cases in that place alone. There are thousands of cases in the City of New York, which we will refer to with pleasure, and to men of character well known. United States Officer .- Cap'. G. W. McLean, me

Rahway, January 25, 1847. A year since I was taken with the influenza and my whole system left in a debilitated state. I was induced to try Dr. Townsend's Sarsaparilla, and after taking two or three bottles I was very much relieved, and attributed Wednesdays and Fridays, at 3 P. McLean, of this town, and one from Rev. Mr. White, of Staten Island, a gentlemsn well known in Rahway .- Capt. McLean believes the medicine to have saved his life, and Mr. White seems to entertain an equally strong confidence in its efficacy. Intelligent men like these would no praise sos rongly what they did not fully believe to deserve it. SCROFULA CURED.-This certificate was handed in to Dr. Townsend's office this week, and conclusively prove ne house is unprecedented.

THREE CHILDREN. Dr. Townsend-Dear Sir: 1 have the pleasure to inform you that three of my children have been cured of the Scrofula by the use of your excellent medicine. They were afflicted very severely with bad sores; have Neatly executed and with despatch, on taken only four botties; it took them away, for which I feel myself under deep obligation. Yours respectfully, ISAAC W. CRAIN, 106 Wooster street. RHEUMATISM & THE PILES.

Dr. Townsend-Dear Sir: My wife has been for seve-I years afflicted with rheumatism. She has tried many different remedies to obtain some relief, but ail to no irpose. She was finally induced, by seeing your advertisement, to give your Sarsaparilla a trial. We procured some of it from your agent (Mr. Van Buskirk)and it gives me pleasure to state that after using it she experienced great relief, and was in a very short time perfectly cured. I was also (together with a man in my employ) badly troubled with piles, and by using a small mantity of your Sarsaparilla, our complaint was completely cured. I consider it one of the best of medicines, and would advise all who are afficted to give it a trial.

Ciergymen and Physicians .- As well as thousands of others in all parts of the United States, are continually sending certificates and informing us of the benefits crived from Dr. Townsend's Sarsaparilla. Dr. Townsend-Sir: Some time since you requested irsaparilla; I am now prepared to give it. I have used it in my practice and prescribed it for the last few months, and musi give it my decided preference over aas to its medical virtues and the reasonable price at which you sell it. In scrofulous affections, cutaneous eruptions generally, dyspepsia, indigestion, costive habits, and liver complaints, I am much pleased with its effects. In these complaints, or any other where scrofu-la is indicated, I can with confidence recommend it to the patronage of the profession as a valuable auxiliary torms, and to all, as a safe and valuable medicine.

Brooklyn, Nov. 21, 1846. BENJ. WEEKS, M. D.

Dr. Townsend—Dear Sir: Having for some time past and a continual pain in my side, owing to evening exp sure in travelling after preaching, and finding my disother alarming symptoms, I was advised by a clergyman, a friend of mine, to try your celebrated Sarsaparilla. did so, and after taking two or three bottles I found my my self relieved. My appetite has been restored. I find myself much stronger, and hope very soon to resume my usual duties. I have been so greatly benefitted by your excellent medicine, I feel it my duty to make oring under the same difficulties that I have been for some time past. Yours, respectfully, SAM. WHITE,

Nov. 22, 1846.] Pastor of Baptist Church, Staten Island ALMOST A MIRACLE. Read the following, and doubt if you can, that conumption cannot be cured. This is only one of the several hundred cases that Townsend's Sarsaparilla has Brooklyn, Sept. 14, 1840. Dr. Townsend-Dear Sir: I was taken, a little over a year ago, with a severe cough and a pain in my side. I ncreased on me very fast, indeed. I was pronounced by physicians to have the quick consumption. I raised large quantities of bad matter, had night sweats, and sinking very fast: my doctor said he could do nothing for me. I went into the hospital in hope of being bene fitted, but was pronounced there as incurable now greatly distressed at the lungs and could hardly breathe; I soon became emaciated, and expected to die; was confined to my bed, and was obliged to have watchers; indeed I cannot give you any description that would to justice to my case. I was supposed by my friends to be past recovery; I had tried a great number of rem dies, and all seemed to be to no purpose. I read of me most extrordinary cures performed by your medicine, and to tell you the truth, I suspected there was some humbug in them. But I was induced to try it; I did so, and am very thankful I did. I cannot say that I am entirely well, but am so far recovered as to be about my business, and hope to be entirely well in a few weeks. My cough and pain in the side, and night sweats have left me, and raise but very little, and am fast gaining my usual strength. I felt it a duty to give you a statement of my case, to publish if you please.

Dr. Townsend: My wife being greatly distressed by weakness and general debility, and suffering continually by pain and a sensation of bearing down, falling of he womb, and with other difficulties, and having known cases where your medicine has effected great cures, and also hearing it recommended for such cases as I have lescribed, I obtained a bottle of Extract of Sarsaparill and followed the directions you gave me. In a short time it removed her complaints and restored her to health. Being grateful for the benefits she received, I take pleasure in thus acknowledging it, & recommending it to the public. M. D. MOORE, cor. of Grand Albany, Aug. 17, 1844.] and Lydius-st. Dr. Townsend.—To all whom this may concern: This s to certify, that my wife used one bettle of your Sar saparilla previous to her confinement, under the most a larming and delicate circumstances, being troubled with the dropsy, swelling of the feet, nervous affections, and very much debilitried. With my persuasion, and the re-commendation of those who had used it, she was induced to try it, with little or no faith; and suffice it to say, the medicine had the happy and desired effect, not only in the hours of confinement, but after the expiration of one week of its use, the dropsy and nervous affection gave way to an astonishing degree, and her health is now better than it had been for a long time previous. If this will be of any service to you, or any who doubts the success of the medicine, you are entirely welcome to it. I subscribe myself your most obedient and obliged S. S. JAMESON. OPINIONS OF PHYSICIANS. WOMAN'S CARES.

A STORY OF REAL LIFE. My heart always "stirs within me when I read selections made by editors" of newspapers which are designed for us married ladies, setting forth our duty in relation to making our homes happy to our husbands-that we should always welcome them with a cheerful smile when they come in from the cares and fatigues of the day and do all we can to make arried life pleasant to them, &c. Now this is all well, I acknowledge, and I trust I strive to reduce that theory to practice. But allow me to inquire if the cares and fatigues of the wife are always appreciated by the husband?

Shall I give a short sketch of domestic life as it is-not of course describing a family as t should be; but I wish to give a fair example of every day life at home. My neighbor, Mr. Benson, is a lawyer by profession, and is what the world calls a respectable man. His income is small; but he married a lady who was able to furnish their small house handsomely, and they have some hopes of property in reversion. Mrs. B. has been a wife twelve years and is the mother of five children, the youngest but a babe, and the family as happy as the larger portion of families. It is a Monday morning, and this speaks 'unutterable things" to the New England wife, who has been married a dozen years -has kissed the children and gone to the office, where the boy has a good fire-the books and papers are all in order, and Mr. B sits down to answer a few agreeable demands upon his time, which will evidenty turn into cash. He goes home to his dinner punctually at one o'clock; it is ready for him-he takes it quietly, perhaps frolics ten minutes with the baby, and then hurries to his office. At the hour for tea he goes home, every thing is cheerful, and to quote a simple rhyme of an

"The hearth was clean, the fire was clear, The kettle on for tea; Benson was in his rocking chair,

And blest as man could be." But how has it been with Mrs. Benson thro' the day? She has an ill-natured girl in the kitchen who will do half the work only, at 9 shillings per week. Monday morning at eight o'clock, four children must be ready for school; Mrs. Benson must sponge their faces and smooth their hair; see the books, slates, pencils, paper, pocket handkerchiefs-yes, four of them, all are now in order & now the baby is crying-the fire is low-it is time Sally should begin to wash-the parlor, the chamber, the breakfast things are all waiting. Well, by a song to baby who kicking in the cradle, a smile to smooth ruffled Sall and with all the energy she can summon, things are straightened out and the lofty pile of a week's wearing begins to grow less; but the time shortens with itit is almost dinner time-by some accident the joint of meat is frozen; company calls; Mr. Benson forgot to get any eggs on Saturday, Mrs. B. must do the next best thing; the bell rings twelve-the door opens and in rush the the children from school. John has torne his pantaloons. Mary must have some money then to get a thimble-she has just lost hers. William has cut his finger with a piece of glass and is calling loudly for his mother. Poor Mrs. Benson endeavors to keep cheerful and, to look delighted in the hubbub; and now the dinner by her efforts alone, is upon the table; her husband comes in and perhaps wonders why the "pie is not a little better warmed," and with this comment, and a smile on the babe he is off till it is time for tea-I forbear to finish the day and I shall say the afternoon is made up of littles, too small to mention but large enough to try the faith and

Now, this wife surely has borne the burden

Editors should be more just and now and then exhort husbands to do their part towards making home more agreeable to their wives, who have borne a world of cares and vexations through the day. "NOBODY BUT A PRINTER, ANYHOW."

Such was the sneering expression of a person residing not a thousand miles from the door of our sanctum, in reference to the profession we follow in pride. "Nobody but a Printer," in sooth? It makes our free blood run rampant in our veines to hear such expressions from the lips of those nursed on republican soil. And has labor become disgraceful ?- and is the name of Printer a reproach in the land? We cannot believe it .-Whoever gains an honest livelihood by toil, is a nobleman. Let those who scorn the laborer look back to their grandfathers, and they will see noblemen after the make of God's own hand-men who stood and sung among the waving corn-men who wore their human nature like a crown. "Nobody but a Printer, anyhow!" Who was William Caxton, one of the fathers of literature? "Nobody but a Printer !" Who was Earl Stanhope? "Nobody but a Printer!" Who was Samuel Woodworth, the poet? Nobody but a Printer!" Who was Governor Armstrong, of Massachusetts? "Nobody but a Printer?" George P. Morris, James Harper, Horace Greeley, Robert Sears, and Senators Cameron, Dix and Niles, and a host of no less conspicuous names! Who are they "-"Nobody but of our land scorn those who honestly work out the penal condition prescribed by the Creawill blister their hands, with manual labour. We have seen such justice even in our day! Madison Visitor.
